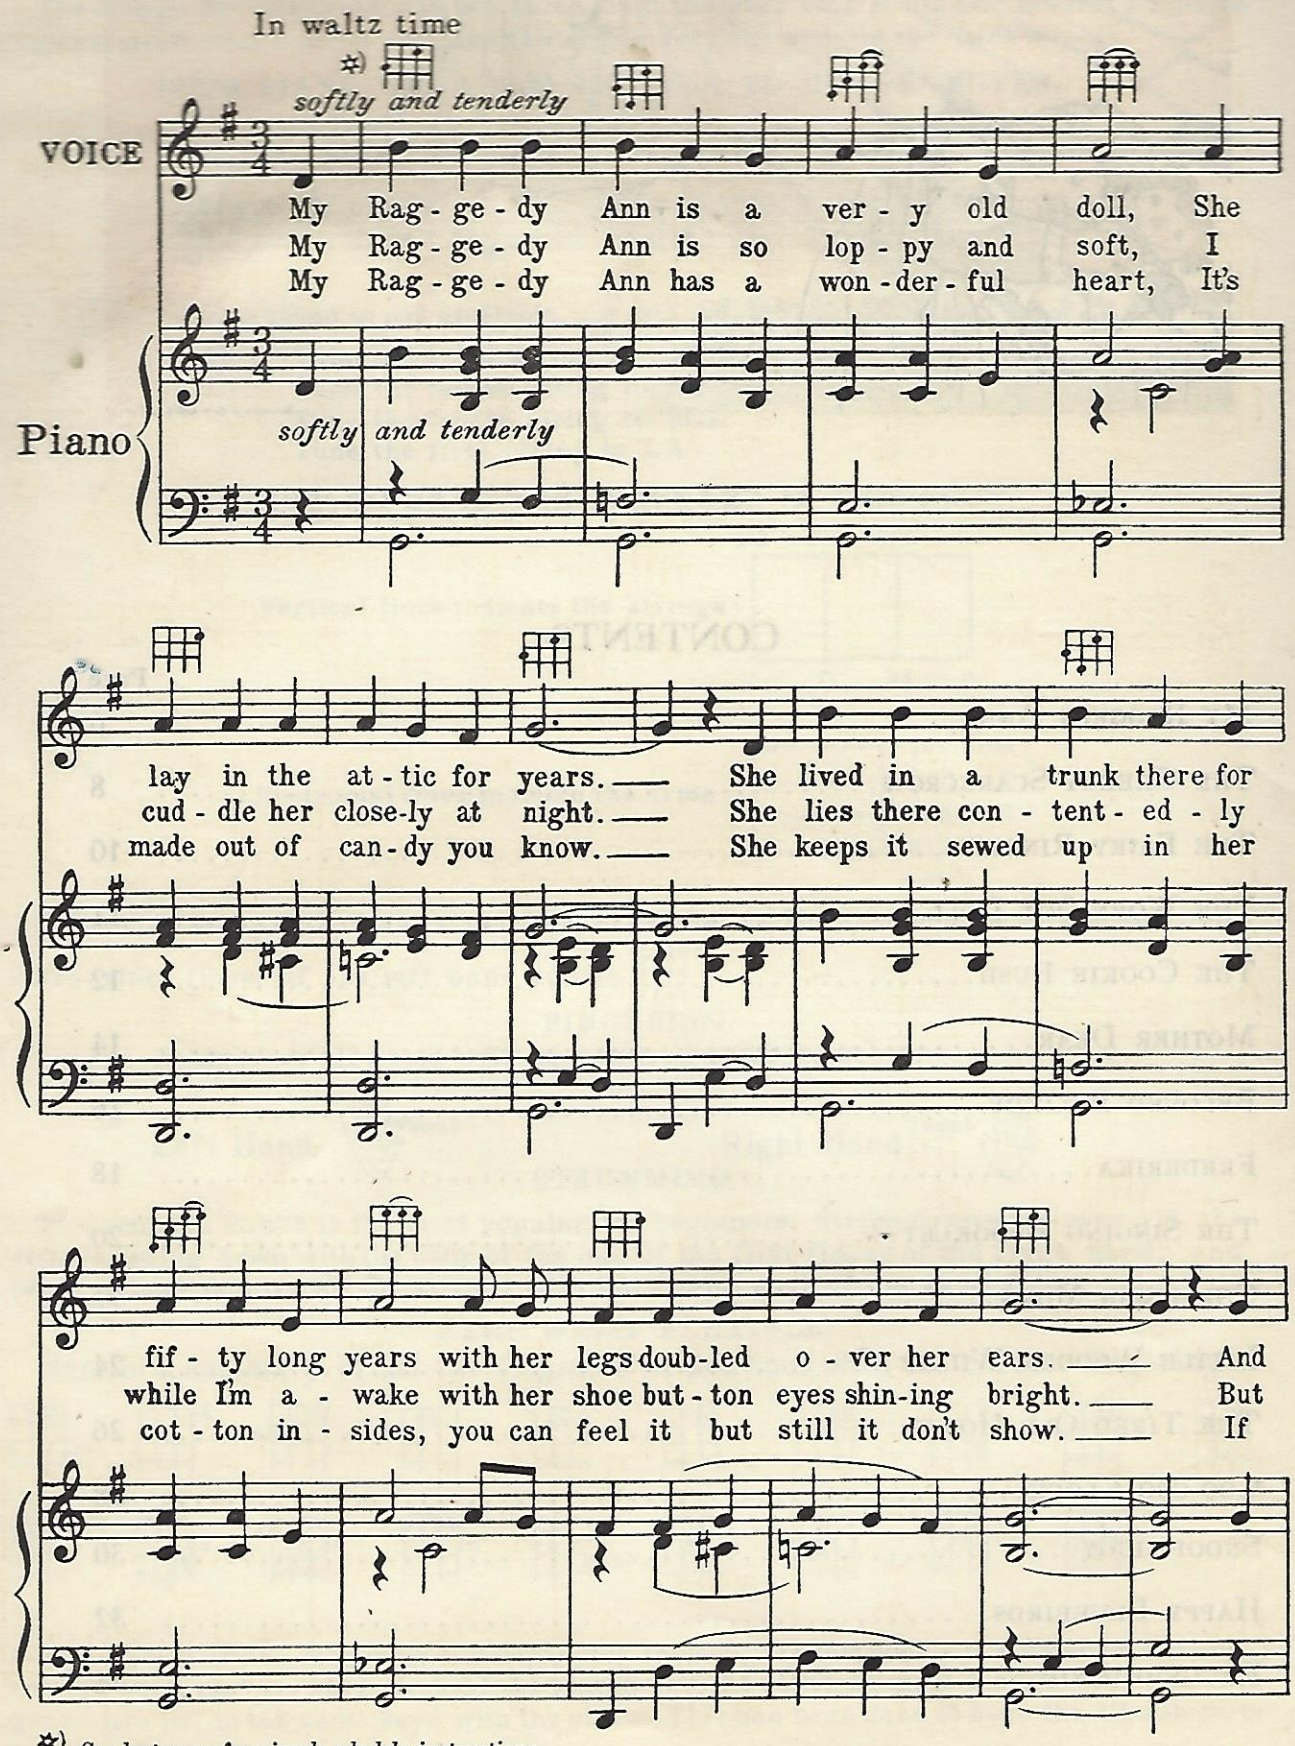
My Raggedy Ann



In waltz time
softly and tenderly
VOICE
My Rag - ge - dy Ann is a ver - y old doll, She My Rag - ge - dy Ann is so lop - py and soft, I My Rag - ge - dy Ann has a won - der - ful heart, It's Piano
softly and tenderly
lay in the at - tic for years. She lived in a trunk there for cud - dle her close-ly at night. She lies there con - tent - ed - ly made out of can - dy you know. She keeps it sewed up in her fif - ty long years with her legs doub-led o - ver her ears. And while I'm a - wake with her shoe but - ton eyes shin-ing bright. But cot - ton in - sides, you can feel it but still it don't show. If ✲) See last page for simple ukulele instructions.

that's where I found her, My Rag-ge-dy Ann and grand-moth-er when I'm a-sleep then. My Rag-ge-dy Ann goes out with the I had a heart like My Rag-ge-dy Ann I'd sure-ly know gave her to me So, I love ev-'ry wrink-le in fair-ies to play For, she thinks I don't know it sly what I would do, Why, I'd love ev-'ry-bod-y like retard
Rag-ge-dy Ann, And that's why she's smil-ing at me.
Rag-ge-dy Ann, But she can not fool me that way.
Rag-ge-dy does, And make all their wish-es come true.
retard